Lead Us Not Into Temptation

We know from James 1:13 that God does not tempt us to sin. If He did, He would be acting contrary to His holy nature, against His desire for us to be holy as He is holy, 1 Peter 1:16, and against all other commandments in Scripture that tell us to avoid sin and flee temptation. In the Lord's Prayer Matthew 6:9-13, Jesus included asking the Lord not to lead us into temptation as one of the things we are to pray for regularly, along with forgiveness of sins, daily provisions, and seeking God's glory and kingdom.

The idea of God leading His people is a main theme of Scripture. The Psalms are filled with pleas for God to lead us in His ways Psalm 5:8; 27:11, by His truth and righteousness and in "the way everlasting" Psalm 139:24. Along with leading us to good things, it is understood that we are asking God to lead us away from evil. The petition not to be led into temptation reflects the believer's desire to avoid the dangers of sin altogether.

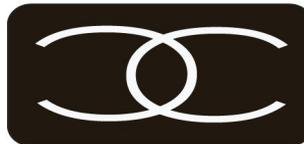

Whether asking for God to lead us away from sin or from difficult trials, the goal is found in the second part of verse 13: "deliver us from evil." A petition similar to this is offered by David in Psalm 141:4: "Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with the workers of iniquity." In all things, God is our deliverer and we are to pray to Him as such.
